The Surat International Textile Expo will play an important role in nurturing the textile sector by providing International platform to the textile machinery manufacturers to showcase their latest product to the global challenging market. It will provide an excellent opportunity to the textile manufacturers, dealers and suppliers to discuss about the latest market innovations. I look forward to serving all of you and the entire Textile Industry by following our Honourable Prime Minister Narendra Modi’s visionary ‘Make in India’ campaign. Will need all your support, guidance and help to take the trade and industry to the next level, where we can proudly have our next generation, continuing to work in this trade”.

Suresh Patel, Chairman, SITEX-2023 – “The world has entered the ‘Digital Age’ and the need of the hour for every business is to reinvent itself on the global arena. Thus, The SGCCI is coming up with the 7th edition of SITEX 2023. Our only

Himanshu Bodawala
President, SGCCI

According to Himanshu Bodawala, President, SGCCI – “It is an excellent opportunity to the Textile Machinery Manufacturers, Dealers and Wholesalers to showcase their products with the latest updated technology to the global competitive market. The future of the Indian Textiles Industry looks promising by strong domestic consumptions as well as export demand. India is working on various major initiatives to boost its technical textile industry.

The industrialists of Surat are famous for quick adaption to the latest trends and changes, I am sure that this event will be beneficial not only to existing entrepreneurs but also to potential industrialists and all other stakeholders of the state. I am certain that the Expo will support MSMEs and the large units of the South Gujarat region and take them to the next level”.

hope is to reach the world with the positives of the Indian Textile Industry against and bring in the change which global buyers want to see in our work processes, designs and quality. SITEX will influence the modernization of the Textile Industry thus by increasing the growth of textile exports globally. Everyone will see innovative ways and tools which will be used to promote the products across the world. And this will both be Consumer centric and dealer centric, to the trade and to the end user”.

We wish all the success of the exhibition and assure that both exhibitors and visitors derive immense benefit from SITEX 2023 ■
